

Melbourne Times, 26/11/08

Throwing out domestic violence

Darebin Council amenity and enforcement manager Michael Kennedy and Andrew Wilson attach magnets to Darebin garbage trucks to promote White Ribbon Day. The council ordered 50 magnets for display on 25 trucks as they collect rubbish. For 16 days, from yesterday to International Human Rights Day on December 10, the white ribbon garbage trucks will provide a reminder about the importance of speaking out against violence towards women.